Growing Hyacinths in Water or Water and Stones

Unpack bulbs and store in cool place till Dec. 1—50 to 60 degrees best temperature.

Clean bulb well. Place in hyacinth glass as pictured or set bulb in bowl and hold in position with clean pebbles.

Add enough water to barely cover base of bulb. Place in cool, dark place until top growth is 4 inches above bulb.

Then place in warm, sunny location for flowering. Add water as necessary.

After flowering bulbs may be planted outdoors to bloom there another year.

Outside Bedding Hyacinths

2¼ to 2½ inches in diameter

These smaller bulbs are recommended for outside planting.

They will produce beautiful flowers with little care.

BETTER NARCISSUS

This year the largest single item in determining the cost of bulbs is labor. It costs just as much to dig, cure, clean, pack, and ship an older variety as a newer one. During the war many of the older varieties were replaced with newer, better sorts as bulb acreage in Holland was reduced by food growing and flood. We are offering here what we know are the very best bulbs in their class at a price that is extremely reasonable for these Better Varieties. All Large Select Flowering Bulbs—Mostly Double Nosed.

A great many of the hardy bulbs force quite readily in the house by following these few simple rules.

1. Unpack bulbs at once. Pot Daffodils at once, Narcissus next, Tulips and small bulbs later.
2. After potting place in a cold dark place. The best is to place in a cold frame out of doors and cover with leaves.
3. When bulbs are well rooted and frozen several times, bring into house, but keep cool until tops have started well or bud has appeared. Then give more heat and light, while watering well.

For your convenience we are offering a few suggestions on care and culture of Chrysanthemums growing outside in the garden.

Follow These 10 Keys To Success

1. SELECT A RICH, WELL DRAINED SOIL. Mums are quick growing plants that do best in a rich, well drained soil rich in available plant food. Be sure that water cannot stand on site selected.
2. SUNNY LOCATION—NOT CROWDED. A sunny location not hemmed in by trees or tall shrubs is essential. Mums love lots of fresh air.
3. SINGLE SHOOT PLANTS, PLANTED APRIL 20 TO JUNE 20. Select single shoot plants, either new potted ones or divide your old clumps. They are vastly superior in growth and bloom. Large potted plants will flower well planted outdoors most any time.
4. SPACE 18 IN. TO 2 FT. APART. This is very important as it allows for proper growth and ample room to cultivate.
5. WATER WELL—but not too much. As Chrysanthemums grow fast they must not be allowed to dry out.
6. CULTIVATE WELL TILL AUGUST 20. After August 20 the side shoots that make plants for next year begin to form. Cultivation after that date should be done very carefully.
7. PINCH BACK. About August 15 when plants are growing rapidly cut or pinch the tops back to knee height, about two feet. A well rounded branched plant will result.
8. SUMMER FERTILIZATION. After pinching back, when the new branching starts, give each plant half a palmful of fertilizer, 0-10-10, 2-12-6 or with as little nitrogen as possible.
9. PICK FLOWERS. Picking flowers is a good practice as it encourages new root growth. Cut off all flowers when blooming period is over.
10. WINTER MULCH. If possible cover crowns with an inch or so of sand then mulch with excelsior or straw.

WHAT SHALL I DO?

PLANT LICE—APHIDS—Spray with nicotine spray. eliminate ants nearby.

LEAVES BURN AT BASE—Maybe too crowded, too wet a location, plants not transplanted and divided, plants hungry—fertilize well.

TOO TALL—FALL OVER—Plants not cut back—soil too rich in nitrates—too much shade—older taller varieties—select newer, more dwarf varieties.

DO NOT BLOOM—Too shady—too rich a soil—not divided and reset.

PLANT A ROW OF MUMS

Hardy Chrysanthemums develop to their fullest extent when grown in rows like carrots or cabbage in your vegetable garden. Plant them 2 ft. apart in rows at least 3 ft. center to center.

THE CHICAGO MUMS BLOOM EARLY AND ARE QUITE HARDY

Spectacular English Mums

Without doubt the greatest development that has come in Outside Mums in the last few years has been in the English Chrysanthemums. They have proven extremely hardy, unbelievably beautiful in colors and blends and above all have given the home gardener what he has wanted for years, a truly large flower comparable to those grown in the greenhouse, that he can grow out of doors with ease in his garden.

For the last few years and for at least 2 years to come all fruit has been and will be very scarce. Because of this fact now is an excellent time to plant a few fruit trees, not a great number, but a few. Trees planted now even though prices are high will come into bearing at a time when fruit will be in demand because fewer trees have been planted. As the wood on our Fruit Trees will not mature enough for digging until late October or early November, we cannot ship Fruit Trees before November 10th.

ANOKA

The Wonder Apple

Bears earliest of all. Anoka has the most remarkable ability in that it will bear on one-year wood and annually, thereafter, the second year after planting. Four-year trees have been known to have borne three crops of fruit.

FINE EATING—VERY PRODUCTIVE

The size, color and flavor of Anoka make it a popular favorite. The fruit is good sized, red striped, and comes on early in the season. It is good eating, cooks up well and keeps better than most summer apples. Anoka is surprisingly productive, often loading its branches till they bend nearly to the ground, yet due to its sturdy habit, seldom breaks under the great weight.

VERY STURDY—HARDY EVERYWHERE

The sturdy growth of Anoka is one of its outstanding characteristics, and it is hardy and disease resistant. Another remarkable characteristic of Anoka is the dwarf stature, which adapts it nicely to the backyard and will allow closer planting of the trees in an orchard.

SOME UNUSUALLY INTERESTING PLANTS

THE RARE FRANKLINIA

(Franklinia Alatomaha—Gordonia Alatomaha)

This exquisite fall flowering tree was brought in 1777 from the banks of the Alatomaha River in Georgia to Bartram's garden in Philadelphia. John Bartram, recognizing its extraordinary beauty and value, named it in honor of his lifelong friend, Benjamin Franklin. The original grove of Franklin trees was again visited in 1790, but from that day to this no one has seen these trees growing in the wild though many expeditions have searched the banks of the Alatomaha for it.

Each twig develops at its tip a cluster of buds of graduated size, like overgrown greenish pearls. Early in August the largest of these attain the size of marbles. Then the guard petal folds back, still retaining its firm spherical form. From its shelter emerge four other petals, satiny, snowy white elaborately frilled and pleated. The snowy, frilly chalice, three inches in diameter, holds a sumptuous mass of orange gold stamens and breathes forth a delicate, balmy fragrance.

Each flower lasts two or three days and then drops cleanly. There is a constant succession of bloom till hard frost. We frequently get the unusual effect of a tree clad in crimson autumn foliage and abundantly starred with white flowers.

The Franklinia begins blooming when not more than three or four feet high. Young trees under favorable conditions increase in height a foot or more each season. Specimens thirty feet high are known. It develops naturally with several trunks, but may easily be trained to a single trunk by removing the sprouts which start from the base.

DELICIOUS NEW BLUEBERRIES

Imagine the old-fashioned Blueberry or "Huckleberry" grown to three-quarters of an inch in diameter. That's what these new varieties will do; yield has also been increased.

Blueberries require an acid soil containing an abundance of peat or other partially rotted vegetable matter. They need a moderate supply of soil-moisture, and good drainage so that the roots can get air during the growing season.

Strong Plants, 12 to 15 inches high

CABOT—The earliest variety to fruit. Plants seldom exceed 3 feet in height, making a broad low bush. Delicious sub-acid flavor.

CONCORD—Bush of upright habit and at maturity exceeds 6 feet in height. The berries are large.

JERSEY—Vigorous in habit, grows very large. The berries are very large, light blue.

RUBEL—Well-developed bushes stand 6 feet or more high. The large berries are of fine blue color; can be depended on for a good crop every year. Ripens about two weeks later than Cabot.

This beautiful new hardy Lily from Holland is among the easily grown Lilies. Height, about 26 to 30 inches, it blooms the last of June at its best. Color is a peach overlaid salmon cerise. A distinct and unusual color in lilies on a plant that will thrive and multiply for you.

DELPHINIUM—DARE'S OHIO STRAIN

A strain of hybrid Delphinium developed at Morrow, Ohio, by Miss Alma Dare. Noted for its large double flowers on strong, stiff stems 6 to 8 ft. high. This strain was selected for its ability to grow on a rather wet, heavy clay soil. The whites in this strain are outstanding.
